May 16, 2001 LB 536A

they're eyesores on the land, they don't produce anything, and the fact that they held out false security to people, who may have left that area otherwise and sought their fortune, when they could have gotten it some place else, are now gone. And these plants are actual negatives in the community. They're going to come back to the state and say, you caused the problem; correct it. And I hope that I'm still here, and I will be because this...the bottom is going to fall out of this in fewer than seven years, and I've got at least seven years if I don't croak. But the way I'm dealing with these ethanol entities and what I've seen the characteristics of some of those shysters are...well, not shysters, those are lawyers. Well, one of them was a lawyer. I meant somebody may assist me in croaking. But what I have to mention to Senator Wehrbein on the first part of his discussion, I call attention to my bills to let everybody know that there are bills that I have, let them know which ones mean something to me, and if they want to punish me those are the bills to kill. It doesn't...it doesn't phase me to have somebody say they're going to put a motion on a bill and then withdraw it. It doesn't phase me if they say they're going to put a motion on the bill and the others say we're going to kill it. I just come back next year and try again. There is no bill that means...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...so much to me that I'm going to back away from what I view as a principle. So if you don't know all the bills that I have yet pending, I will get a list and give it to you, and you can kill them all. I'm not going to be any more hostile to you than I am now. But I believe in tit for tat, measure for measure, even-steven. Here is the question that I want to put to Senator Wehrbein. Senator Wehrbein, if your amendment is not adopted...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...why would it...what can stop your amendment from being adopted on Final Reading?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, the way I look at it now, it may be the
